

School is Out, SUN Bucks are In

What are SUN Bucks?

SUN Bucks (also called Summer EBT) gives $120 of extra grocery benefits to children ages 6-18 years old over the summer. This program is for families who can use some extra support to buy food.

How often can my family get SUN Bucks?

One time in summer, the family gets $120 for each child who qualifies.

Should we apply for SUN Bucks?

You may or may not need to apply.

- 1 To find out if you get the benefit right away or if you need to apply, go to: <https://www.summerekbt.org/states/rhode-island> and answer the questions.
- 2 If you need to apply, go to the RI DHS website at <https://dhs.ri.gov> and search "SUN Bucks Application Form".

Getting your Child's Card in the Mail

Is your child getting a new or replacement SUN Bucks card in the mail?

- No, our family has a SNAP (EBT) card or a SUN Bucks card from last summer. → You can ignore this flyer.
- Yes, we are getting a new or replacement SUN Bucks card in the mail. → Please read below to get your card.

What do I need on my mailbox to get my child's card?

If you are sent a new or replacement SUN Bucks card, the post office requires that you:

- have your child's full name on the outside of the mailbox OR
- have your child's first initial and last name inside the mailbox

What does the card look like?

The card comes in a white envelope. It is addressed to the child and the return address is from out of state.

The SUN Bucks card is blue. If you have an old PEBT card (which was white), please throw it out.
