

About

The RI Department of Human Services (DHS) is committed to helping families thrive at home, at work and in the community. As a state agency, DHS is charged with the administration of public benefits for Rhode Island families, children, older adults, individuals with disabilities, veterans, and others.

This brochure provides an overview of the programs and services available to you as a customer and what you can expect after submitting an application for benefits.

Healthcare Coverage

Helps provide coverage for eligible low-income individuals and/or families who otherwise might not be able to pay for or get access to affordable health care.

Food Assistance (SNAP)

Helps provide coverage for eligible low-income individuals and/or families who otherwise might not be able to pay for or get access to affordable health care.

Cash Assistance

- Rhode Island Works (RIW)
Helps pregnant women or families with children.
- General Public Assistance (GPA)
Provides a small cash benefit to adults pending SSI. *GPA Burial falls under this program and provides funds for burial.
- Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA)
Helps people admitted to the U.S who are refugees or someone treated as refugees.

Child Care (CCAP)

Helps pay for child care.

State Supplemental Payment (SSP)

Helps low-income adults with disabilities and people 65+ who meet certain requirements, pay for living expenses.

Ways to Reach Us

The Customer Portal at HealthyRhode.RI.Gov
Reaching out to the Call Center by dialing 1-855-697-4347
Visiting our regional offices across Rhode Island

Office Locations

219 Pond Street
Woonsocket, RI 02895
FAX: 1-401-235-1273

*249 Roosevelt Avenue
Pawtucket, RI 02860
FAX: 1-401-721-6659

31 John Clarke Road
Middletown, RI 02842
FAX: 1-401-619-7201

4808 Tower Hill Road
Suite G1
Wakefield, RI 02870
FAX: 1-401-782-4316

*125 Holden Street
Providence, RI 02908
FAX: 1-401-462-8052

*Offices with Document Scanning Centers

APPOINTMENTS ARE REQUIRED

The Shepard Building,
80 Washington Street
Providence, 02903 FAX:
(401) 537-7876

The Hazard Building
Building 74
41 West Road, Cranston
FAX: 1-401-736-1442 or
1-401-736-1443

Note: household members choosing not to seek benefits are not required to provide citizenship/immigration information but will be required to provide their financial information if it is needed to determine eligibility and benefit amount for persons who are applying. Household members who are seeking benefits must supply information about citizenship or immigration status. Certain members of the household may not opt out of the application and MUST be included.

DHS.RI.GOV

Applying for Benefits

What Happens Next

DHS.RI.GOV | 1-855-MY-RIDHS

What Happens Next ...

Once you have submitted an application for benefits, DHS will mail a decision within 30 days for most programs. Decisions are viewable on the Customer Portal at healthyrhode.ri.gov, which provides easy, convenient access to all of your notices. Please refer to the information in this brochure for general information on the process for DHS programs and services.

For the programs and services listed below, the first step is to fill out an application, sign it and submit it to DHS.

Health Coverage  <https://dhs.ri.gov/programs-and-services/medical-medicare-programs>

1. For applicants without disabilities, you may be eligible for a variety of programs under Medicaid or the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and Health Insurance Marketplaces:

- a. Within 30 days you will receive a notice of eligibility.
- 2. For applicants ages 65+ and/or disabled, you may be eligible for other Medicaid programs:

- a. Medicaid for Elders and Disabled (EAD)
- b. Sherlock Program for the working disabled (EAD & Sherlock may take up to 30 days)

- c. LTSS (Long Term Care Services and Supports) d. Katie Beckett (KB) for children with disabilities

- Eligibility for LTSS and KB may take up to 90 days

Food Assistance (SNAP)

<http://www.dhs.ri.gov/Programs/SNAPProgram.php>

- 1. If an interview is required, you will receive a phone call from DHS to conduct your interview. If you are not able to conduct your interview when DHS contacts you, you must call DHS back at 1-855-MY-RIDHS to complete the interview requirement. If you're found eligible, your benefits will be available within 30* days.

- 2. After you complete the interview (if required) and submit all necessary documentation, DHS will send you a decision notice.

- 3. If you are found eligible you will receive an EBT card to use to purchase food.

*Some households with special criteria will have a decision within 7 days.

Cash Assistance  Links for cash assistance programs can be found on dhs.ri.gov

- 1. For families with children, within 30 days:

- a. You will receive an appointment through the mail for either a phone or in-office interview.
- b. After you complete the interview, submit any necessary documentation, and sign an employment plan, DHS will send you a decision notice.

- c. If you are found eligible you will begin participating with your employment plan and receive an EBT card to access your cash benefits, which are issued twice monthly on the 1st and 16th.

- 2. For single adults, within 45 days:

- a. You will receive a notice in the mail of eligibility and/or a notice asking for additional documentation in order for us to make an eligibility determination.

- b. If you are found eligible, you will receive a check twice a month.

Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP)

<http://www.dhs.ri.gov/Programs/CCAPProgramInfo.php>

- 1. Within 30 days, you will receive either an approval notice, a denial notice, or a notice asking for additional documentation. If you receive an approval notice, you will share that notice with your child care provider to show them you are eligible for CCAP benefits.

State Supplemental Payment (SSP)

<https://dhs.ri.gov/programs-and-services/ssl-state-supplemental-payment>

- 1. Within 30 days you will receive a decision notice and/or a notice asking for additional documentation.

- 2. If you are found eligible, SSP payments will be direct deposited monthly.

Documents Needed

The documents listed below are examples you or others in your household may need to provide in order for us to determine your eligibility. A few considerations include:

- This is not an all-inclusive list
- Some documents can be used to verify more than one category.
- We do not request documentation for information that we can verify electronically for health coverage programs.

1. To verify your identity, age/date of birth, citizenship and/or immigration status

- ✓ Driver's License
- ✓ School or work documentation
- ✓ Immigration and Naturalization Documents (e.g., Green Card)
- ✓ Birth Certificates
- ✓ U.S. Passport
- ✓ Hospital birth records

2. To verify your Rhode Island residence

- ✓ Rent or mortgage receipts showing address
- ✓ Lease agreement or letter from landlord
- ✓ Mail received with your home address (utility bills, bank statements)
- ✓ Voter's registration card

3. To verify your income

- ✓ Check stubs (most recent 30 days)
- ✓ Employer statement showing income before taxes, hourly work schedule and the number of hours worked for the past four weeks (if you get paid in cash or you do not have your paystubs)
- ✓ Child support court order
- ✓ Other retirement or disability benefit award letters
- ✓ Proof of self-employment income (including rental income, freelance work)
- ✓ Previous tax returns showing income before taxes, hourly work schedule and the number of hours worked for the past four weeks (if you get paid in cash or you do not have your paystubs)
- ✓ Receipt of UBI, TOI, and/or VA benefits
- ✓ Proof of alimony

4. To verify your resources

- ✓ Documentation of ownership of a trust
- ✓ Proof of ownership of a burial plot (if you own more than one)
- ✓ Vehicle registration or owner documentation (car, boat, truck, motorcycle, etc.)