- B. R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-12-23 designates the DHS as the principal agency of the State responsible for the planning and coordination of State involvement in the area of child care, including responsibility for State programs subsidizing child care services provided to families receiving benefits from the Rhode Island Works Program (RI Works) and low to moderate income eligible working families. Funding for this Pilot program is authorized from August 1, 2023 through July 31, 2024.
