

COMING IN JANUARY...
INTRODUCING THE SNAP EAT WELL, BE WELL (EWBW) PILOT REWARDS PROGRAM!

Did you know that you if you purchase fresh fruits and vegetables at participating stores with your SNAP EBT card you can earn additional benefits to spend on any food item? For more information about this pilot program, please see the frequently asked questions below.

1. What is the Eat Well, Be Well Pilot Rewards Program?

Eat Well, Be Well Rewards puts money back on your EBT card when you use SNAP to buy healthy fruits and vegetables from authorized grocery stores. You may also hear this being referred to as incentives or incentive benefits.

2. How do I earn incentive benefits?

To earn benefits, the Eat Well, Be Well Rewards Program requires that you purchase fresh fruits and vegetables at participating stores. The rewards will automatically be added to your SNAP/ EBT card.

3. How will I know if the fruits and vegetables are approved?

Only fresh fruits and vegetables are approved for rewards during the pilot program. Participating stores will identify which fruits and vegetables are approved.

4. What can I spend my reward incentive benefits on?

You can spend your reward incentives on any SNAP-eligible food item. The reward incentives you earn will automatically be applied to your next SNAP-eligible purchase at a grocery store.

5. Are there purchases that cannot earn a reward incentive?

If you use your cash benefits to purchase fresh fruits and vegetables, you will not earn a reward incentive.

6. How much do I earn in reward incentives when making a purchase?

For every dollar you spend on an eligible reward incentive item, you earn half of that amount in incentive. The match is 50% of the eligible purchase amount. For example, if you purchase $10.50 in fresh fruits and vegetables, you will earn $5.25 in incentives.

7. Is there a maximum amount I can earn in reward incentives in a month?

Yes, each household can earn a maximum of $25 in reward incentives a month.

8. How long do I have to use reward incentives?

You have 274 days (or 9 months) to spend your reward incentives and then they will be removed from your account.

9. How do I find out how much reward incentives I've earned?

You can check your reward incentives online at www.EBTedge.com or by signing into your account at www.healthyrhode.ri.gov or the HealthyRhode mobile app. You can also call the EBT customer service number at 1-888-979-9939 and follow the prompts.

10. Where can I go to earn these rewards?

Not all stores in Rhode Island offer reward incentives. We are continually adding participating stores, so check the DHS web site at <https://dhs.ri.gov/SNAP-Eat-Well-Be-Well> for the most up-to-date list of participating stores.
