

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND
Department of Children, Youth and Families
Records Center
101 Friendship Street
Providence, RI 02903

September 29, 2025

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

You have requested a clearance check of our child abuse/neglect records in partial fulfillment of the application process required for involvement with your agency.

A review of the Department records on the person(s) listed below indicates:

[REDACTED] DOB: [REDACTED]

☐ Department Records show that there is disqualifying information on record for this applicant.

☒ Department Records show that there is not a record of disqualifying information for this applicant.

Should the applicant be dissatisfied with the Department's findings, he or she is entitled to an Administrative Hearing. It is the responsibility of the agency to ascertain if the applicant intends to appeal the Department's decision. The applicant cannot be assigned childcare duties until the outcome of the appeal.

Please feel free to contact Natasha.House@dcyf.ri.gov or (401) 528-3843 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
Domenic R. Lancellotta
Assistant Director Child Protection Services
Rhode Island Department of Children, Youth and Families

NOTICE OF TRANSPARENCY/FULL DISCLOSURE TO ALL HIRING MANAGERS

☐ Although Department Records have verified that the above referenced applicant has indicated involvement with DCYF investigation(s) that were not disqualifiers for employment, the records may contain information you find useful to your selection process. This information may be disclosed to you only when the applicant provides an additional authorization to release this information to you.

Please be aware that since the information we may have is not a disqualifier for employment, you are free to hire this person and are not required to request anything additional from DCYF.